STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

Guidelines and Procedures

Every year, the Department of Visual Art awards Study Abroad Scholarships to outstanding current undergraduate and/or graduate students through a competitive review process. Only students seeking a degree in the Department of Visual Art (MFA, MA, BFA, BA, Minor) are eligible to apply for these scholarships.

There are two different types of Study Abroad Scholarship opportunities that students can apply for: 1) Semester-long Study Abroad in Fall or Spring, and 2) Summer Study Abroad. Those students applying for the semester-long Study Abroad Scholarship must intend to enroll in Study Abroad Program in Fall 2026 or Spring 2027, to study for a semester at the one of the institutions listed below. Those students applying for Summer Study Abroad Scholarship must intend to study abroad by enrolling in a Summer Study Abroad course offered by the Visual Art Department. This year it is Summer 2026 Visual Art in Japan: <https://studyabroad.ku.edu/visual-art-japan>
